Comfortable for today and promising an even brighter long-term future, this solid freestanding home presents an outstanding opportunity to buy into this dress circle bayside address on one of Rodd Point’s best streets. This is a standout property that will spark the interest of those looking for an immaculately maintained brick home with immediate live-in or rent out options and plenty of scope to increase value with an update or extension to take full advantage of this exclusive position. This prime location is literally footsteps to the water’s edge and the famed Bay Run, with all the area’s parks, shops and schools easily accessible on foot.
